Dear Customer,

we are pleased to invite you to Print4All 2018, the new international Exhibition, a benchmark event in Italy for professionals of Printing and Converting, where all our novelties will be exhibited.

This is an unmissable opportunity for everyone who is interested in solutions and technologies for every printing need on every kind of support, but also a unique occasion in Europe: Print4All, indeed, is part of The Innovation Alliance, the big supply chain event that will occupy the whole Exhibition fairground at Fiera Milano and that will bring together for the first time IPACK-IMA, MEAT-TECH, PLAST, Print4All e Intralogistica Italia. In a single event and location you will have the possibility to consider a big and various offering that ranges from processing to packaging, from plastics and rubber processing to industrial and commercial printing, to graphic personalization of every kind of packaging and label, all the way to intralogistics solutions.

In order to facilitate your visit, we indicate you the special preregistration service, functioning only from 15 January to 15 March, which will allow you to receive a personal invitation ticket for two entries.

Click on the button on the side or on the following link <http://www.print4all.it/en/content/pre-registration>, to preregister for Print4All by now!

In this way you can save time and money, by directly entering the Exhibition.

The ticket allows you to visit all Exhibitions of The Innovation Alliance.

From 16 March to 1 June an admission fee will be charged to visitors who don't have the invitation code to be used online.

We are sure you will appreciate this opportunity and hope to meet you at the Exhibition.

See you at Print4All 2018!
